

Shelby County Cattlemen's Association

Scholarship Application

The Shelby County Cattleman's Association is a consortium of cattlemen committed to the cattle industry and agriculture in Shelby County, Indiana.

The Shelby County Cattlemen's Association is pleased to be able to offer our yearly scholarship to individuals pursuing further education with the applicant having a background, interest, or pursuing a career in an agricultural area.

Individuals eligible for the scholarship are students pursuing a post-secondary degree at an accredited institution. Recipients are not eligible to apply after receiving the scholarship. Previous applicants not chosen will be eligible for the following year. The amount and number of scholarships will be determined during the application review process.

Please complete the form entirely and return it by the deadline-April 28th to:

Krista Justus at 1104 S. 350 E. Shelbyville, IN 46176.
